

AT ATTRACTIONS LISTED IN THE VARIOUS CITY PLAYHOUSES NEXT WEEK

"THE CLEVER ONES" IN POPULAR FAVOR.

"The Clever Ones" at the Punch and Judy Theatre goes into its fourth week on Monday. There is no diminution in the popular appeal of this Alfred Sutro comedy, with its smart dialogue and funny situations. No end of merriment is caused by the social mingling of extreme types. The great variety of characters is very ingeniously brought out by Charles Hoyt, Edward Emery, John Rogers, Mrs. Hopkins, Louise Closer Hale, Annie Hughes, Beatrice Prentiss and Vera Cole. "The Clever Ones" promises to cut out the balance of the season at the unique Punch and Judy Theatre. The play was originally produced on Monday for the benefit of the Workshop Fund of the Mayor's Unemployment Committee.
